Message from the Pastor

This weekend you will meet our new seminarian intern, Ambrose Dobroszi. I am very happy to have him with us this year. I guess we did such a good job with now Deacon Alex Witt, that the Archbishop and the seminary want to entrust us with another young man on his way to the priesthood. I think you will like Ambrose very much; he is an intelligent and hard-working guy, who loves our Lord and the Church, and who wants to commit his life to serving as a priest. I'm also sure you will give him a warm welcome and help him along his way to ordination. Internship can be a very good opportunity for a seminarian to see what it is like in the "real world", experiencing the day to day life of a parish priest. Let's hope it is for Ambrose and that he firms up his vocation and gets from our parishes many of the tools needed to be a good priest.

You will be seeing a lot of Deacon Alex Witt this year as well. He is hoping and planning to be up here a weekend a month to serve at Masses and preach the homily. He absolutely fell in love with you all when he was here for his internship and he can't wait to be back with you. I am extremely happy that he had such a good experience during his internship and that thanks to you he is going to be a great parish priest for our archdiocese.

Keep up the prayers for our seminarians and for more young men to answer the call to the priesthood. Fr. Danny
