Message from the Pastor

Well, we've elected a new president and vice president, and I guess I need to comment on it. From all indications of his first few days as President-Elect, Donald Trump seems to be taking it on with decorum and seriousness. That is good. He is a flawed man (as are all of us to some extent), but he doesn't seem to be in it for himself. In other words, he is not seeking political power for the sake of personal power or to advance a personal agenda. Throughout the campaign he has been responding to an electorate that has been overlooked by the political and media elite. Mr. Trump doesn't need to be president for himself. He could have enjoyed his money and his family and taken it easy in life. I see in him a man who wants to serve his country for the good of all its citizens.

The best thing about President-Elect Trump is that he is from the outside of the Washington Beltway; in other words, he is not a professional politician. For too long our country has been governed by a two-party system, each entrenched in their own ideologies and each equally unaccountable in the spending of our tax dollars in a big government way. This must end. This will end, if Mr. Trump can do what he says he will do. Just the simple idea of term limits on our Congress, like the presidency has on its office, will be the first step to ending the tiger-hold Washington has over our country and our taxes. Mr. Trump is for term limits.

I am happy an outsider has been elected our next president. Again, he is a flawed man. But I will say that Mr. Trump has raised a great family and has been a more measured man in the last month of the campaign and since he won the election. This is encouraging.

We do have a fine man as Vice President-Elect in Mike Pence. He was a very good choice and will be an excellent vice president. He is staunchly pro-life and will give much more solidity to Trump's pro-life leanings, especially in choosing the next two or three supreme court justices.

So, in all I think we as Catholics, can be relieved that an avowed pro-abortion candidate has not been elected to the highest post in our government, especially following eight years of an equally pro-abortion president that we have had. I see cracks in the foundation of the great edifice in the pro-abortion tower beginning to form. The citizens of the United States are clearly pro-life people. It is time we bring our laws to the same place, and protect the lives of the unborn.

Fall Cleaning of Holy Rosary Church

Thank you to everyone that graciously gave of their time to help make our Church "shine"!

Catch the Excitement at Holy Rosary School

Fr. Dan Schmitmeyer, Director of Vocations for the archdiocese, celebrated a beautiful Mass with Holy Rosary on November 10th, the Feast of St. Leo the Great. Fr. Dan asked the students how to stay close to their faith. The children kept him busy with their answers of following the Commandments, being obedient, going to Mass, saying the Rosary. After Mass, grades 5-8 asked Fr. Dan questions about his job and his vocation as a priest. Students learned that Fr. Dan is director of vocations for all 19 counties in the archdiocese, and that most of his time is spent in the parishes of those counties. Students also found out that his favorite saints are his friends St. Peter and St. John Vianney. This was a truly blessed morning of Mass and fellowship as Fr. Barry also stopped in to spend a bit of time with the upper grades.

Fr. Dan reminded us this Vocation Awareness Week, that our vocation is not what we are, but WHO God wants us to be. Pray Fr. Dan's children's prayer for vocations with your children. God works in their lives and in yours too!

Dear Jesus,
I know You love me.
I know You have a great plan for me.
I know You want me to be a saint.
Help me listen for Your voice.
Help me know who You want me to be.
Help me say yes to Your call.
I love You Lord and I thank You.
Amen.

We would also like to thank those who contributed to the baskets and those who assisted in putting them together.

We had a generous crowd for the 2016 Turkey Party held at the Wapak K of C Sunday night. Solemnity of Christ the King

Each year at the conclusion of the liturgical year, we fittingly celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King. As the Apostle St. Paul teaches us, "In Jesus Christ, everything in heaven and earth was created... and continues in being" (Col 1:16-17). He is the 'Alpha and Omega', the 'Beginning and End', the 'Way, Truth, and Life'. Indeed, Christ promises to His faithful friends the gift of salvation, the pledge of everlasting life through His Resurrection. Therefore, faithfulness to Christ, our King, opens the door to our eternal happiness.

Now more than ever, we must celebrate that Jesus Christ is King of the Universe, including in the following ways:

In Christ, we must preserve our fundamental rights. Jesus Christ reveals the fulfillment of the truths of creation found in the book of Genesis: "God saw everything that He had made, and behold, it was very good" (Gen 1:31). Therefore, "made in [His] image and likeness," each of us possesses an immeasurable goodness (Gen 1:26). And, this goodness from Christ, given to the heart of man, calls us to fight for what is justly ours: the right to life, freedom of conscience and religious freedom.

In Christ, we must evangelize in love. Christ, both meek and humble of heart, is the perfect servant of God: Through His teaching and His life, Jesus intended to confirm, not to coerce, others in faith (Dignitatis Humanae, no. 11). Through our daily action, let us follow Christ's loving example of showing the truth to others.

In Christ, we must proclaim the truth. Christ's Kingship "bear[s] witness to the truth" (John 18:37). In bearing this witness, Christ acknowledges government authority, "rendering to Caesar the things that are Caesar's" (Matthew 22:21). None the less, we are asked to speak out "against governing powers which oppose the holy will of God" (Dignitatis Humanae, no. 11).

Bearing witness to the truth in this age can be difficult. But Christ has shown us that 'kingship' must always be at the service of the good of mankind. Therefore, with His grace and in hope of His gift of salvation, let us bear witness to the truth, even when it is unpopular or costly to do so. In this way, we become faithful servants of Christ, preparing the way for His Kingdom, both on earth and in heaven.
